

Logistics Plus Opens New Warehouse in Honolulu, Hawaii

The new warehouse has over 75 thousand square feet of storage in the capacity-tight Pacific market.

ERIE, PA (March 7, 2025) – Logistics Plus, Inc. (LP), a global leader in transportation, logistics, and unique supply chain solutions, is pleased to introduce the opening of its newest warehouse located near Sand Island at 2280 Alahao Place in Honolulu, Hawaii. The 75,000+ square foot facility is managed by Troy Pagaduan, director of operations for the LP Hawaii branch that opened in late 2022.

The LP Hawaii warehouse was established to serve a growing list of clients needing storage and distribution support in the Hawaiian Islands and to serve as a staging and storage facility for several significant upcoming furniture, fixtures, and equipment (FF&E) installation projects for the hospitality industry, being led by hospitality logistics industry veteran Ray Orlando.

"Aloha! Our Hawaii warehouse is now up and running," said Pagaduan. "We've enjoyed great growth and recognition on the islands since we opened here a little over two years ago. It is exciting to add warehousing solutions to our expanded offerings here in Hawaii."

With the opening of the new LP Hawaii warehouse, Logistics Plus now has nearly 10 million square feet of warehousing across North America and additional locations worldwide.
